Meridian s Divide is the introductory look, a first glimpse into The Wayward And The Wicked Universe. Thayden, a First Generation Operative of the Colonial Armed Forces, is brought face to face with uncertainty from the moment he is awoken from hypersleep. Stepping out of the submersion pod and into an unfamiliar situation, he is greeted by Captain Harding. A mysterious Navigator pilot who takes protocol, procedure and safety measures. the entire manual and throws it out in the wash. It quickly becomes apparent that the circumstances surrounding his release are questionable at best. Harding and his band of hired help, unwittingly release nine of the most dangerous creatures ever created. Assigned to seek out a single elusive target: a Third Generation Operative named Arabi. Their only rule of engagement: eliminate any threat. Their only guidance is to be careful not to make too much noise. It s only a matter of time before this reunited motley crew of personalities gets themselves into trouble. no doubt in the most peculiar of ways possible. Proceed at your own risk, venture into the...
