

IF YOU KNEW HOW REGULAR I AM.YOU WOULDNT BE SO FULL OF IT My 30 Year Secret Life With Crohns Disease

By Toni Whitley

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 116 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.0in. x 0.3in. Not only will this story bring awareness on how not to rely solely on insurance companies for your future financial resources (should you unfortunately become disabled); it is also the story of my life's lessons on successfully overcoming the challenges of living with a debilitating disease. These lessons can be used as a reference to the: young audience beginning their life's journey; working person relying on insurance benefits should they unfortunately become disabled due to an illness; person with any life-long illness; and for the audience looking for an inspirational story. This story spans my 30 year struggle with a chronic illness while attempting to climb the corporate ladder. Using tools which were part of my foundation, such as sacrifice, independence, spirituality and morals, I was able to fulfill dreams beyond my imagination. I am very grateful that having worked for over 20 years in the financial industry, I had the money management skills which prepared me for my financial emergency. Unexpectedly, in February 2006, I was hospitalized, due to severe complications from Crohns Disease and my entire world began to shatter. Within weeks of being on medical disability, I went...
