SUBMISSION ISN T FOR SISSIES: WHY GOD CALLS US TO DO IT ANYWAY (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Lindsey Rae Robinson (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Old-fashioned Oppressive; puts women down It means we have to do what we are told I don t know much about it, but I know I don t like it Honestly, I don t know anything about it. But who cares? It doesn t apply to us anymore Mention the word Submission in a room full of girls, and you will uncover a variety of emotional responses. We live in a culture that is so saturated with the be your own boss mentality that just the idea of the Bible telling Christians and specifically women to submit is repulsive. Many either turn away from Christ or justify ignoring it by saying that it doesn t apply anymore. In this five-week study for teen girls, author Kelly Wehunt cuts through the lies to identify what Scripture really says about this controversial topic and how fully understanding it will change your life forever. In a style that feels like a great conversation with a wise friend, Kelly tackles tough questions such as the following: What is submission? Why should we submit to the authorities in our lives? (Spoiler alert: It s not just about husbands!) How can we submit to one another? Be prepared to be pushed and encouraged as you tackle a new topic each week. It s time to settle the dispute of what submission is all about once and for all. The question is, are you up for the challenge?.
