

So You Returned to Sark (Paperback)

By Chris Davies Curtis

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In her previous books Chris tells of her move to the tiny Feudal Island of Sark, in the British Channel Isles with her husband Ken, to run their guest house and smallholding. They then journey out to New Zealand to explore and finally settle there. Over the years the marriage starts to falter and in the opening chapter of So You Returned to Sark it comes to a dramatic head. Chris returns to Sark with the love of her life, Peter, and begins a very different existence. She becomes involved in many activities in the community; from the Water Carnival to the Sheep Races and the Channel Island Music Council to founding the Sark Garden Walks. She continues as the Island nurse, and trains to be a Homeopath, holding clinics in Sark and the neighbouring Island of Guernsey. Over the seventeen years of this book we meet many interesting characters. We enter into the unique life of this beautiful Island, which is still car-free and has a Seigneur at the head of its own parliament or Chief Pleas. Chris has to call...
